WHAT: The Playhouse San Antonio announces new CEO and Artistic Director

After a nationwide search, The Playhouse San Antonio is pleased to announce the selection of George Green as its new CEO and Artistic Director. “We are thrilled to welcome George to The Playhouse family and are eagerly looking forward to his enthusiasm and vision for our theater. Under his leadership, we know that The Playhouse will continue to produce the excellent programming it is known for” says Omar Leos, Chairman of the Board.

Born and raised in San Antonio, Mr. Green will be returning home after spending the past twenty years in the Inland Northwest where he served as a business manager and arts leader. Since 1990, Mr. Green has served as the Artistic Director for the Godbold Cultural Center’s Resident Company, The Development Director of Spokane Civic Theatre, and most recently as The Executive/Artistic Director of The Modern Theater in Spokane, Washington.

Mr. Green will join The Playhouse within the next few weeks. Until his arrival, Meredith Alvarez, Marketing and Artistic Manager of The Playhouse, will serve as the Interim President and CEO. Ms. Alvarez holds a B.S. in Speech (Theater) from Northwestern University and was a founding member of Signal Ensemble Theater in Chicago in 2003.
