

2015 - 2016 Subscription Season

The Real Thing by Tom Stoppard

Stoppard combines his characteristically brilliant wordplay and wit with flashes of insight that illuminate the nature--and the mystery--of love, creating a multi-toned play that challenges the mind while searching out the innermost secrets of the heart.

The Philadelphia Story by Philip Barry

A sophisticated, classic romantic comedy. Socialite Tracy Lord is planning her second wedding, but everything is thrown into chaos by the arrival of two tabloid reporters, her father's scandal, and the interference of her ex-husband.

Disgraced by Ayad Akhtar

Winner of the 2013 Pulitzer Prize for Drama.

"Everyone has been told that politics and religion are two subjects that should be off-limits at social gatherings. But watching these characters rip into these forbidden topics, there's no arguing that they make for ear-tickling good theater" (New York Times).

Satchel Paige and the Kansas City Swing by Trey Ellis and Ricardo Khan

An exciting and inspirational new play from the creators of Fly! Satchel Paige is the king of baseball: a charismatic, superstar pitcher. But as Jackie Robinson wraps his first historic season in the majors, Paige finds his own fame eclipsed and his desire for greater respect increasingly frustrated by the barriers all around him. A story of passion and perseverance, this jazz-infused drama paints a vivid picture of America on the brink of great change — on and off the baseball diamond.

A Little Night Music

music and lyrics by Stephen Sondheim book by Hugh Wheeler

A bittersweet tale of romantic longing and furtive liaisons unfolding over a single midsummer's evening in the Swedish countryside.

All titles are subject to change pending performance rights availability.
