

The Frog Prince

About the show: Princess Abigail is simply a spoiled brat with no concern for anyone but herself. But with the help of a cunning frog with a very special secret, Abigail will learn how to be a true Princess! The Frog Prince features original songs and music, and a special guest star—Penelope the Party Pooper!

Theatre Terms and Definitions

Actor: The real people in a play. Wearing costumes and make up, actors pretend to be different people (or characters). Sometimes they play more than one part.

How many actors are in The Frog Prince? _____

Character: The person an actor pretends to be or "play". Which actor played Prince Francis?

(Hint: look on this program carefully!)

Crew: The people who work off the stage to complete the play. They work with stage lights, sound effects and props, move scenery and curtains, and tell the actors when to begin the show.

Director: The person who leads the actors in the play. The Director tells actors how to say their lines, (sentences) and where to be on the stage when they speak

Unscramble the mixed up words below.
(Answers are upside down)

1. lbal dolg _____
2. cisnarf _____
3. grof _____
4. airyf _____
5. alibiga _____
6. trab _____

1. gold ball; 2. francis; 3. frog; 4. fairy; 5. abigail; 6. brat

Penelope's Party- Pooper Problems

Help Penelope do her math home work:

 +  -  = _____

    -  = _____

 +  +   -  = _____

Prop: (short for "Property"): Anything an actor can carry or bring onstage like a ball, or food, or a basket of flowers. What props did you see in The Frog Prince?

Script: The written part of the play. In the script, the name of the character is followed by the "lines" they say.

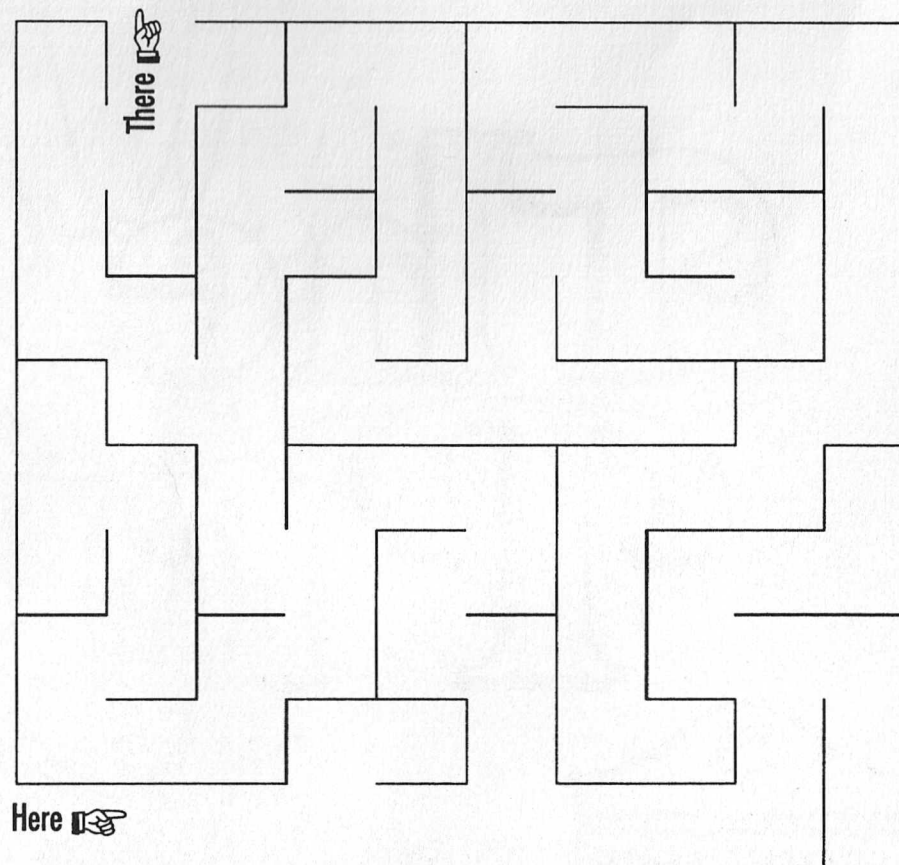

Set: The way the stage is decorated with scenery to look like another place, like a forest or a castle. In The Frog Prince, some of the scenery is very old—backdrops, painted in 1882!

 +  -  = _____

 +  = _____

 -  = _____

Help the Frog Prince find his way to the castle

Actors & People Behind the Scenes

The Frog PrinceSean Martin
 Princess AbigailJennymarie Jemison
 Penelope the Party PooperAndrea Smith
 Prince Francis and The KingJose Villarreal
 Stage and Musical Direction and Music Composition.....Michael McKelvey
 Costumes.....Rita Kelso
 Lights.....Alex Soto
 SoundJoshua Keeling
 Stage ManagerHeath Thompson
 Company ManagerGwen Kelso

To find out about more shows: Call 472-KIDO (5436) or visit www.SRCT.org

Thanks to our sponsors:

