As Exchange Artists we create theatre inspired by cultural exchange at home in Austin, TX and abroad. Through international collaboration and community engagement we empower our artists and audiences with fresh perspectives, new experiences and a strengthened sense of connection.

Special Thanks

To the cast for contributing their creative energy to the script and performance. To Dan Solomon for his contribution to the script. To Cleve Wiese for designing the tree steps and poster. To Spencer Pharr the lighting consultant and Katie Richter the props consultant. To Youth Launch and Nan McRaven for sharing us. To our families and friends who have supported the year-long creation of this show. Thank you! Much gratitude, Rachel and Kat.

Coming Soon

An interactive, augmented-reality iPhone game accompanying the play will be launched at 2pm on Saturday April 2nd. Details on how to play and continue your experience as a character in the world of The Story Seekers will be revealed on The Exchange Artists' website soon.
